"Every person born into this world represents something new, something that never existed before, something original and unique. It is the duty of every person to know . . . that there has never been anyone like him in the world, for if there had been someone like him, there would have been no need for him to be in the world. Every single man is a new thing in the world and is called upon to fulfill his particularity in this world."

There is no need to run outside for better seeing,
Nor to peer from a window.
Rather abide at the center of being;
for the more you leave it, the less you learn.
Search your heart and see if he is wise who takes each turn:
The way to do is to be.

Class Song of '79
My Favorite Things

We are the class of '79.
Searching for friendships with treasures to find.
Anticipating what four years will bring.
These are a few of my favorite things.

Chorus:
When the nite comes, when the tears fall, when I'm feeling sad, I simply remember my MacMurray days . . .
And then I don't feel so bad.

Girls in white dresses with green ribbons tied.
Thoughtful big sisters stand close by our side.
MacMurray, dear, to thee we sing.
You are one of my favorite things.

I am writing in regards to the Physical Plant. On March 8th, we were charged $5 in "labor fees" for a clogged sink. Because our sink recently underwent major repair, we thought the problem could be something more serious and so we didn't want to mess with it. So we called the Physical Plant. For less than $5 we could have easily bought a bottle of "Liquid Plumber" and did it ourselves.

The men at the Physical Plant are supposedly paid a salary by the college. Why then are they charging extra for labor which is done in or to college buildings that come under their jurisdiction? Are they participating in a separate business venture as a way of earning cash? If so, they must be making a mint at Norris and Blackstock.

There are a lot of things that need repair around Rutledge. The sinks on second and third floor do not drain, the buzzer system is kaput and the floodlights around the dorm haven't been working all year. It's a lot safer walking from the library to the dorm when you can see where you're going. But if Physical Plant can't repair these things without extra labor charges, it would be cheaper to put up with these nuisances than pay extra for what they're already being paid for.

ANIMAL HOUSE INSPIRES CHAOS IN McCLELLAND

At approximately 4:50 p.m. last night, at a prearranged signal, a food fight broke out in McClelland Hall, apparently in an effort to emmulate a scene in the movie "Animal House."

The entire endeavor was completed in less than a minute. In addition to food, plates and trays were also hurled and two chairs were broken. After the excitement was over, one half of the dining hall was closed down as dining hall employees attempted to clean the mess.

Director of Food Service, Steve Nechvatal, said it took over an hour for preliminary clean up operations to be completed. Nechvatal said the food service put extra effort into last night's meal, borrowing a charcoal grill to barbeque the chicken, and he felt that in lieu of the evenings activities the effort was a wasted one.

Dean Clement would make no comment last night except to say a list of those who can be positively identified as participating in the fight is being compiled, and that those people will be dealt with.

MONTAGE

WRITER'S BLOCK

Inspire me again, O Muse;
I, who once wrote words
In endless bubbling streams
As though my very existence depended on my prose —
I have run up against a dam.
The words which flow now are only
Rhetoric themes,
Essays on ethics,
Papers which pretend to be about Art.
I have no time anymore.

Inspire me once more, O Muse;
I, who once sang songs
So fragile they lived only for an instant
And only in my mind,
The lyrics never having been written down —
I have found my song stilled.
The music of my imagination now consists
Of songs heard on the radio,
The Bee Gees,
And John Denver.
I have no voice anymore.

Inspire me one last time,O Muse;
I, who once breathed poetry
Of tragic, unrequited love
And childlike innocence gone in terrible knowledge
Of all the sadness in the world, and pain —
I no longer weep to the winds.
The truths I speak now are of Old friends marrying young,
The mail that doesn't come,
Students and professors,
The food in the dining hall,
"Finding myself,"
Contentment.
I have no sorrow anymore . . .

RAT INVADES MICHALSON HOUSE

At approximately 9 a.m. yesterday Rick Hall killed a rat in Michalson House. Hall said that Dave Sandoval found the rat, and when he arrived it was huddled in a corner in the stairwell between the basement and first floor.

They left the rat lying in a pool of blood to call Physical Plant. Hall said that when he told them "I just killed a rat in Michalson House," Physical Plant replied, "Oh, uh, well, we'll call the rodent control." When he asked them to remove it, he said, they told him to get the maid.

The rat apparently laid there until noon, when Hall maneuvered it out the door with the broom handle he had used to kill it.

KENDALL 2ND EXPELLED FROM ZOO BY NORRIS ANIMALS

The Norris "Animals" certainly are keeping up their reputation. Wednesday night, following their Halloween fashion show, the girls from Kendall 2 bravely went into Norris House to show the guys their costumes. The girls thought that the "Animals" would appreciate seeing the outfits that they had made and thought they'd give a friendly reception. However, Kendall 2 found that it's very obvious when the "Animals" don't like what they see. They started pushing the girls out of the hallway into the street, while shouting obscenities at them.

One girl's metal waste basket, used as part of her costume, was totally dented, as a result of being smashed into a wall. Another girl's broom was broken. The attack wasn't exactly good for another girl's umbrella, either. Not only was her umbrella smashed, she landed on the posterior end of her body.

One of the girls turned around to find that her friend, who was on rollerskates and couldn't escape, was being carried up the stairway by one of the "Animals."

Eventually, Kendall 2 was fortunate enough to escape Norris after learning the valuable lesson that they should be more careful about making the Animals angry.

The Daily Other.

"The only small-college daily newspaper east of the Mississippi"

The Daily Other is something else. It is the only small-college daily newspaper east of the Mississippi, and the only college newspaper that knows how to spell mostaccioli. Published five days a week, rain or shine, by the Journalism program, edited and managed by a staff of 30 students, the Other reports on and reflects the concerns of the campus, from soccer to safaris, freshman experience to food fights, boycotts to basketball. Its pages present protests, praises, puns, menus, casts, sales, resignations of deans and student government presidents, mesmerizing editorials, interminable letters, tantalizing typographical errors, occasional weather reports, IM logos, hub cups, lowbrow cartoons, highbrow illustrations. It sponsored, and then postponed, Bow Tie Day in honor of President Wittich's tenth anniversary as president. Staff members dressed up, down and sideways for the semiannual parties at the Metcalfs.

The Black Student's Union was established in 1968 by a group of conscientious black students, who sought to redefine the identity of the Black man in relation to himself and the community as a whole. It also serves as an outlet for the cultural expression of the black students at MacMurray College.

From these basic purposes, the B.S.U. has become very involved in community action projects designed to make others aware of the problems facing the Black man. Because these students have had the courage to stand up and fight, many of their aspirations have been realized, like the introduction of curriculum; and the founding of the Martin Luther King Library.

Since its inception, the B.S.U. has grown and its ranks are still swelling, promoting the cultural awareness of the Black man. One of their most successful community programs is the Educational Recreation program which includes black children from the Jacksonville community. These students are involved, also, in the annual Talent Show and Fashion Show.

BELLE LETTRES

Belles Lettres, founded in 1851, is the oldest women's society at MacMurray. Originally a literary society, its members now work with the children at the Illinois School for the Deaf. This year officers are: Nancy Swenson, president; Sheryl Wanless, vice-president; Kathy Jendras, secretary; Joy Schlegel, treasurer; Kathy Dalton, pledge mother; and Jeanette Bailey-Murray, program director.

BLACKSTOCK BOYS GET BASIC TRAINING

The men of Blackstock snowed their neighbors Monday night with their "first snow panty raid."

Kendall was attacked at 11:20 p.m. Led by their resident assistants and head resident, the men of Blackstock took over. One of the biggest panty raiders was Jeff Senzel '82. Senzel came out of Kendall at the end of a hard night with 25 pairs of panties, nine bras, and three sleeping tops. A total of about 75 pairs of underwear were swiped from the Kendall women, but this did not stop them.

Kendall then retaliated. They came for jocks; however, the Blackstock men were ready. They had the showers going. When the girls came in to raid the jocks, the jocks raided them with a nice shower, fully clothed.

Barb Mitchell '82 was the first to feel the wrath of the Blackstock men as she was picked up and taken to the second floor for her shower and powdering.

Sights of men's and women's underwear were all around campus, everywhere from the Campus center to Kendall windows. When it was over, however, the men did admit that it was only a trial run and when the snow sticks, they will be up campus.
